The Company insures on equitable terms, and at a fixed premium, every description of property. The Company is solely and exclusively responsible for losses occasioned by fire which may be suffered by insured parties.

The Insurance may be effected for periods ranging from one month to ten years. The total premium payable in advance, in cases where the Insurance is effected for a term of one year or less; and annually where the term exceeds one year. In terms of from 5 to 10 years, payment in advance of 4 years premium, entitles the Insured to the reimbursement of one year's premium; or in other words the Company will only charge the premium corresponding to four years.

Payment in advance of ten year's premium entitles the Insured to the reimbursement of two year's premium; with a further abatement of 10 p. cent. on the premium corresponding to the term of eight years: that is he will only be charged with the amount of eight year's premiums—less 10 p. cent.

The Company furnishes guarantees of the highest character, from the fact of there being no other Fire Insurance Company, at a fixed premium having its head residence in the Argentine Republic and also from the circumstance of large capital.

Further particulars will be furnished on application at the Company's Offices. 93 xp n18

THE RIVER PLATE TELEGRAPH.

GRAND INAUGURAL BANQUET AT THE COLISEUM.

SIMULTANEOUS BANQUET AT MONTEVIDEO.

The official inauguration of the telegraph from Buenos Ayres to Montevideo, which took place on Thursday evening at the Coliseum, will form an epoch in the history of the River Plate Republics, as well for the importance of the occasion, as for the distinguished company assembled and the brilliancy and 'eclat' of the festivity.

The Directors of the Co. having resolved to inaugurate the telegraph simultaneously at both ends, it was arranged to give the banquet in this city at the Coliseum, and in Montevideo at the new Exchange, the respective Governments and leading men of the River Plate being thus brought for the first time in immediate contact, and forming, as it were, but one festive board.

Invitations had been issued to 300 persons in this city, including the members of the National and Provincial Governments, the corps diplomatique, foreign consuls, representatives of the banks, railways, press, naval stations, &c., and the leading merchants and residents of Buenos Ayres. At the appointed hour, 6 p.m., the approaches to the Coliseum were crowded with carriages, and the company began to assemble in the ante-chamber, where Messrs. Oldham and Furze had all their apparatus in working order, and were already exchanging messages with Montevideo. Vice-president Paz, Governor Alsina, and the cabinet ministers, took great interest in examining the delicate mechanism and 'arcana' of the wonderful science, and the following messages were transmitted to and fro in the interval before dinner:—

The grand hall of the Coliseum presented a dazzling picture, and was never seen to more advantage than converted as now, for the first time, into a banquet-saloon. Three tables, tastefully decorated with fruit and flowers, were ranged in parallel lines, those to the right and left meeting at the top in a semi-circle, and here were the seats of honor on either side of the chair. At the other end of the saloon was a platform for the band. The hall was brilliantly lighted with gas. Messrs. Santa Maria, John Fair, J. H. Green, and Juan Frias acted as committee of the arrangements: the right table was presided over by Messrs. Desarnaud and Pequin; the centre by Messrs. Boyd and Llavallol; and the left by Messrs. Napp and H. A. Green. Covers were laid for 200, and the dinner (provided by the Louvre Hotel), consisted of the following 'menu':—

POTAGES—Mock-Turtle, Purée de pois royale.

At 7 o'clock the following company sat down to dinner—

Mr. John Hughes, Director, in the Chair, having on his right D. Marcos Paz, Vice-President of the Republic; M. Lefebre de Becour, French Minister; Dr. Rawson, Minister of Interior; General Asboth, U. S. Minister; D. Emilio Castro; Mr. Leslie, Mauá Bank; Sr. Cazon, Chief of Police; Mr. Santa Maria, Acting British Consul; Mr. Posadas, Postmaster-General; Mr. Oldham, Engineer; Dr. Roque Perez, and M. Derote—and on his left H. E. Dr. A. Alsina, Governor of Buenos Ayres; Mr. Buckley Mathew, H. B. M.'s Plenipotentiary; D. Lucas Gonsalez, Minister of Finance; Mr. Sorela-Maury, Spanish Minister; Dr. Mariano Varela, Provincial Minister of Finance; D. Hector Varela, Oriental Chargé d'Affaires; Mr. J. H. Green, London and River Plate Bank; Captain Thomson, R.N.; Mr. Wyatt Smith, and Mr. John Fair.

At the other tables were—

Messrs. Carreras, Carril, Barros Pazos, Delgado, Gorostiaga, Pico, Heredia, Segui, Somellera, Aguirre, V. Alsina, Piñeiro, Gen. Madariaga, Granel, Marmol, F. The banquet in Montevideo, presided over by Mr. Proudfoot, Director, and at which General Flores and his Ministers assisted, had commenced much earlier, and we had hardly finished the 1st course when a telegram arrived from Cranwell to the Standard—"We have just drunk Queen Victoria's health, and the band is playing God Save the Queen." During dinner several telegrams were likewise received, announcing some speech or toast just given at the other end, and complimentary acknowledgements and replies were as instantaneously sent in return. It was quite an animated and novel scene; the waiters running to and fro with messages, many of them of a very amusing nature. This necessarily protracted the dinner, and at 8.30, Mr. Proudfoot telegraphed to Mr. Hughes "We are nearly finished with all our official toasts: tell us how you stand?"

Mr. Coghlan sent a message of congratulation to Mr. Felsted, but the waiter, by mistake, delivered it to the band, who at once struck up "Rule Britannia;" the band played select operatic airs at intervals. In order to keep time with the company at Montevideo, the Chairman rose, after the 3rd course, to propose the first toast.

Mr. Hughes said—Gentlemen. As representative of the River Plate Telegraph Co. I feel much pride in rising to address you, on the present auspicious occasion. I see assembled here, in celebration of this great and glorious work the first magistrates of the Republic and Province, and a large array of eminent merchants, men of high intellect and position, who appreciate the civilizing influence of this new agent of progress. We are much indebted to the Governments of B. Ayres and Montevideo for their co-operation in carrying it out, and, trusting that the electric telegraph will draw still closer the bonds of amity happily existing between the sister-republics, I beg to call on you to honor the toast of "the Governments of the Argentine and Oriental Republics."

This toast was received with hearty applause, and at once telegraphed to Montevideo.

Vice-president Paz rose and said—We celebrate now a victory achieved by our foreign friends, which will greatly tend to the advancement of the country. The kind sentiments expressed by the Chairmán will certainly find an echo among the Argentine people; for, which of us can forget how much we owe to England and Englishmen? They accompanied us in our early struggles for Independence: they have in later times brought capital to establish public enterprises among us; they made the Southern railway, and will make many more. The present triumph is a glorious one, for the purest glory is that which springs from peaceful works of progress, and I feel that I interpret the sentiments of the Argentine people in asking you to drink to "British enterprise and the Telegraph Co."

Mr. H. F. Varela said—On the part of the Montevidean Government I have to acknowledge the honorable expressions of the chairman. The days of Rosas and Oribe are now past and gone, and we are conversing with our cousins 40 leagues distant by the submarine thread of magnetic telegraph: "Success to the cable."

Mr. John Fair, in returning thanks on the part of the company, said—It is over 50 years since my father first landed on these shores, and my family feels a natural interest in the welfare of so hospitable and progressive a country. The Telegraph will soon produce great results for the commerce of the two Republics. Railways and telegraph wires are the truest signs of progress, of which Buenos Ayres may be justly proud, and I beg to drink the health of the worthy Governor, "Dr. Adolfo Alsina"—(applause.)

Governor Alsina said he came unprepared with any set speech: he made a graceful allusion to the wonderful inventions of Englishmen and Yankees; he paid a high tribute to Franklin, and considered the greatest triumph of science has been to endow matter with the power of speech. He thanked Mr. Fairs for his noble sentiments, and considered such occasions as the present deserved to be celebrated with honor. What a change since the time of Rosas! The inventions of modern science were now introduced into the River Plate; and foremost that which suppresses intermediate oceans, and conquers time and distance. He concluded by wishing the company splendid dividends and every success.

Mr. Santa Maria said—On behalf of the Committee I rise to offer a toast, which is sure to command the sympathy of all. At present Gen. Mitre is far away, pursuing an arduous campaign, but he would gladly be with us if possible, for he has ever been the foremost supporter of railways and other works of progress, and he it was who signed the concession for the present enterprise. Without further preamble I shall toast the illustrious President of the Republic, Gen. Mitre (loud cheers.)

The toast was drunk with 3 times three, all standing, and the band playing the Argentine Hymn.

A telegram from Montevideo arrived "All going too fast here; so much noise that I can scarcely hear."

Reply—Our banquet is in full blaze.

Dr. Rawson rose to return thanks for Gen. Mitre, and said—Gen. Mitre will learn with sincere satisfaction that his name has been coupled with this glorious enterprise. He has ever been the great champion of progress, as foreigners can bear witness, and the present crusade he is engaged in is for the cause of liberty and civilization. Amid the hardships of the campaign, it will be cheering news to him to hear of this night's festivities. In reply to the toast of the British Consul I will now give you the health of the noble and magnanimous English monarch, Her Gracious Majesty, Queen Victoria (Loud cheering; drunk with all honors, and the band plays God save the Queen).

Mr. Buckley Matthew, British Minister, rose to reply:—At the same time that I offer my sincerest acknowledgements for the cordial manner in which you have received the toast of my sovereign lady, the Queen, I have to regret that Mr. Santa Maria has anticipated me in the toast which I intended to propose—that of General Mitre. When I look around me, it is indeed a subject of pride that we have Englishmen in Buenos Ayres who have done a good deal for the welfare and progress of the River Plate. But their efforts must have proved comparatively fruitless were it not for the wise and protecting administration of such magistrates as Gen. Mitre, D. Marcos Paz, and Dr. Rawson. With such men for rulers any country must progress, and the real advancement of Buenos Ayres enables me to reciprocate the flattering expressions of my valued friend, the Minister of Interior. We are mainly indebted, I believe, to our worthy chairman for the present great enterprise, and as the mails arrived to-day from Europe inform us that Her Majesty has been pleased to confer honors on the heroes of the Atlantic Cable, I could wish the Vice-president had the power to shew a similar distinction to Mr. Hughes—In conclusion I will propose "the prosperity of the Argentine Republic."

M. Lefebre de Becour proposed in adequate and graceful terms "the Commerce of the River Plate."—

Both these toasts were at once telegraphed to Montevideo.

Dr. Roque Perez said—In ancient history we recur to Rome as the fountain of civilization and greatness, but in latter times we have to turn to Britain as the friend of human liberty. Canning aided the emancipation of this Continent, and since then we have taken example from the United States, the advanced sentinel of freedom and progress. In trade and commerce we imitate England, the model of nations; and no better auxiliary to trade can be found than the Electric Telegraph.

Dr. M. Varela reminded the company that a special toast was due to Mr. Proudfoot, the concessionaire, who had initiated the enterprise.

Message from Mr. Proudfoot to the British Minister—"I am glad you have so much order: here we are all enthusiasm."

Mr. Santa Maria then gave 4 toasts in one—

The people in Montevideo have already concluded, and I will condense 4 important toasts in one—The Congress, the Legislature of B. Ayres, the Press, and Mr. Oldham—All are equally deserving of notice, and Mr. Oldham stands high in Europe as a leading man in his profession.

Mr. Oldham briefly replied—My staff is good, the cable is excellent, and I am happy to say as far as we are concerned, it is a great success. I hope the public of B. Ayres and Montevideo will contribute on their part to render the enterprise a signal success, (cheers).

Telegraph from Montevideo "Our banquet is over; you are too late."

Mr. H. F. Varela said—When I last rose it was as Oriental Minister, but now I claim your ear as an Argentine citizen and a friend of progress. I ask you to fill up, first to the British Minister, who displays all the modesty of a true Republican; 2ndly to the French envoy, who represents the glorious country of 1781; 3rdly to the Spanish Minister, whose country is our "madre-patria" and has given us our language, religion, and even our defects; 4thly to Gen. Asboth, the gallant old soldier opposite to me, who has a bullet still in his head from the recent dreadful struggle, during which we sympathised so warmly with the flag of the Union, the time-honored Stars and Stripes. I care not for the distinction of monarchy and republic. Mankind is one family, and such monarchies as England, Portugal and Italy are as free as any democracies (cheers.)

D. Rufino Varela replied to the toast of the Press:—Liberty consists in a free press, and this is a power which nought on earth can subdue. Gauchos and caudillos had formerly everything their own way, but now times are changed. A free press has no more potent auxiliary than the telegraph, and now we only want one thing more—free banks.

Mr. Sorela-Maury said—This expansion of the soul around the festive board is peculiarly English: in England I spent the early years of my life. The sentiments of Sr. Varela to my country, Spain, are flattering, and I am glad to see the free and liberal spirit of this Republic. Spain, like a good mother, rejoices at the success of her children, and with heart and soul I say "Success to the Republics of La Plata."

Don Mariano Billinghurst said—Peace, liberty, and progress is the motto of our age, and I beg you to accompany me in toasting Messrs. Proudfoot & Hughes, who have achieved the River Plate telegraph, and will, I hope, prolong it towards the Northern hemisphere—

Chorus "They are right good fellows."

D. Mariano Varela said—Free banks must be our next move, and the redemption of the paper-money: the latter is like a mountain that impedes the path of the locomotive, but, with God's blessing we shall cut it down (cheers and counter-cheers).

Mr. J. H. Green said—I have the pleasure to be a friend of both Messrs. Hughes and Proudfoot, and regret the latter is not here to respond in abler terms to Mr. Billinghurst's toast. And now I may be permitted to reply to the remarks of the talented Provincial Finance Minister, and say, I hope the day is not far off when free banks will be established and give good fruits, and for this end the English Bank will lend all its efforts.

Mr. Santa Maria said—Our friends in Montevideo are expecting an answer, and let us have a truce to speeches for a few minutes. The Vice-President directs me to forward to Gen. Flores the following message:

"Prosperity to the Republics of La Plata, and may we ever live in peace and harmony." (Cheers.)

Mr. Buckley Mathew said—I avail myself of this moment's lull to rise and propose the health of Gen. Flores. At the same time I endorse Mr. Varela's complimentary expressions towards the great American people and its worthy representative, Gen. Asboth, who, I regret to say, understands little Spanish, but will I trust, give us his ideas in English.

Gen. Asboth returned thanks (in English) and said the ambition of the United States was to see all countries united in peace and progress.

Mr. Santa Maria then read an amnesty from Gen. Flores in honor of the great event.

D. Lucas Gonzalez and Mr. Drabble followed, in very eloquent terms warmly supporting the idea of free banks, and declaring there were superabundant means for the redemption of paper money.

Flores declares that he never expected to receive such an ovation from foreigners, and foreigners shall find that he will not be ungrateful for it.

Another despatch from Mr. John McColl to the Standard, announced that the fete had terminated (10.30), and everything passed off most happily.

At 11 p.m. the company broke up, and thus concluded one of the grandest functions witnessed for many years in the River Plate.

ARRIVAL OF THE PTOLEMY.

ONE DAY LATER FROM EUROPE.

GREAT RISE IN WHEAT.

New York, October 22, Evening.

Gold, 140¼; Exchange on London, 160; Cotton Middling Upland, 41; American Bonds, 114⅝; Petroleum, raw, 22½; do. purified, 40.

Liverpool, 23rd, Evening.

In the Cotton Market 8,000 bales were sold, with everything calm. For corn, wheat has risen a shilling a quarter.

Constantinople, 23rd.

The Government has published a table of the revenue receips applicable to the service of the foreing loans and to the general debt, from the 1st of March next. Agreable to Article 3 of the regulations the table is accompanied by guarantees of the Sultan, which order the direct deposit of these revenues in the Ottoman Bank.

Kiel, 23rd.

A Royal ordonnance published here fixes the operation of recruiting in the Duchies of the Elbe for the 1st of January. The document also contains the regulations for the military organization.

Vienna, 23rd.

By a military convention concluded between Prussia and Saxony, the army of the latter country will commence the evacuation of the Austrian territory on the 28th. Considerable discontent is being manifested in Hungary in consequence of the adjournment of the Diet, which will probably be convoked for the middle of December.

Vienna, 23rd.

The New Free Press learns that M. de Beust will in all probability very soon be appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs. The new Italian Chargé d'Affaires, Count, Batti Oppizzoni, has arrived here. Gen. Menabrea is preparing to leave Vienna with the members of his mission.

Florence, 23rd.

The Official Gazette publishes Royal decrees conferring gold medals on the flags of the municipalities of Venice and Vicenza for the events of 1848 and 1849. The same journal contains despatches from several places in Venetia bearing witness to the eagerness with which the inhabitants of the towns and villages, as well as the clergy, have participated in the vote. The Senate assembled yesterday in its Council Chamber and discussed the different articles of the procedure proposed by the committee for the trial of Admiral Persano. The Opinione announces that General Menabrea will await the King. Austria has sent Baron de Bruck to fulfil the functions of Chargé d'Affaires to the Cabinet of Florence, until the nomination of a Minister-Plenipotentiary.

The Emperor and Empress yesterday came to Paris from St. Cloud, and drove along the Boulevards.

A Paris letter in the Journal du Havre mentions a rumour according to which the Emperor would shortly visit Algeria. He desires, it is said, to superitend in person the practical application of the extensive projects suggested by his former journey to the colony. His Majesty desires, the rumour goes, to assist at the opening operations of the Algerian Company, which is about to employ thousands of labourers in the promotion of public works.

The Vienna Gazette announces the removal from sctive service of Marshal Benedek, and Generals Henikstein and Krismanic.

"An Austrian war steamer, the Elisabeth," says the Indépendance, "has received orders to proceed direct and without delay from Trieste to Vera Cruz. We may infer that the Emperor Maximilian is likely to return to Europe by this vessel, as soon as he hears of the calamity which has befallen him in the person of the Empress, and which puts an end so sadly to the task attempted by him in Mexico."

LATEST FROM THE UNITED STATES

RUMORED TROUBLES.

IMPEACHMENT OF THE PRESIDENT.

The mutterings of revolution daily grow more distinct. Just one month ago this week we exposed the plot of the Radicals to have the militia of the several States secretly armed, and to secure from the general government, if possible, a distribution among the Northern States of the arms in its possession. Since then events have marched on with marvellous rapidity. The conclave of Radical Governors at Philadelphia during the sessions of the bogus Southern convention was not so accidental as it was represented at the time to be. What was then and there planned has thus far been a well-kept secret. Recent occurrences, however, seem to indicate something of the spirit which pervaded that mysterious meeting of the Chie Magistrate of so many Northern States.

The repeated attempts in Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois to put down prominent Democrats while they were battling for the cause of the Union, and to break up Conservative meetings during the political canvass, were more than the ordinary manifestations of undue excitement arising from the interest in an approaching election. The distribution of arms and the suspicious quartering of soldiers by the Governor of Missouri in certain portions of the State over which he presides, evinced something more than a proper magisterial determination to preserve order. The threats against the President of the United States that within the past month have falled so thick and fast from the lips of Radical leaders, mean something more than the bombast of stump speeches that is designed to accomplish, by inflaming the passion, what could not be accomplished by appeals to the judgment; and almost as we write there can be heard the angry shouts of Radical mobs in Philadelphia as they sack Democratic club-rooms, disburb Democratic meetings, and insult Democratic standard-bearers. Can any man of sound mind doubt what these things mean?

If any are puzzled as to the true signification of these occurrences, we commend to their careful consideration the article from the Louisville Journal—evidently from the pen of its senior editor, Mr. George D. Prentice—which we reprint this morning. The warnings therein uttered come not a moment too soon. The Jurnal is right in saying that "it is as true that there "is a Northern rebellion now as there "was Southern rebellion four years "ago;" and it is right in adding that "just as it failed in one section it will inevitably fail in the other."

Not Democrats alone, not Republicains alone, but men of all parties alike should heed these mutterings of revolution. Let the present course of things be unchecked and the result is inevitable. Radicalism, as now developing, means nothing else but civil war.

Forewarned is forearmed..

PANAMA MAILS.

ANOTHER ASPINWALL CONFLAGRATION.

We regret to learn that another very serious confiragration has occurred at Aspinwall. About two o'clock on the morning of the 19th inst., a fire was discovered in the kitcken of the United States hotel, and soon after the building was enveloped in flames which speedily spread to the adjoining buildings, sweeping away all the houses from the entrance to the city, fronting the New York steamer wharf, to the Howard House hotel. Here the flames were fortunately arrested in their progress, by the exertions of the Commodore Boggs and the men of the United States ship-of-war De Soto, who were speedily on the spot, and to whose timely aid the salvation of the rest of the town is doubtless due. Messrs. Field and Alcazar are, we learn, the principal sufferers, as they owned the greater portion of the houses destroyed.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Telegraphic banquet on Thursday night was the sole topic in town yesterday. Nothing could have passed off better, and the very highest praise is due to the committee of management: the dinner was superb, and reflects the greatest credit on the proprietor of the Louvre, who supplied it.

Thanks to the kindness of an English merchant, we received a Parisian paper with dates one day later than the French packet from Europe: we expected to receive a letter from our Rio correspondent, but probably there was nothing to write about. The letters we published yesterday from Rio have caused great notice, as they throw an entirely new light on the state of things in Rio.

Yesterday we received a letter from our indefatigable agent, Mr. Sprunck, promising to send us a full account of the telegraphic banquet in Montevideo. We regret much that we were not present, as it was a great ovation and success; but as we had not been duly notified the fault does not rest with us.

Probably the most felicitous idea in connection with this telegraphic inauguration was that of Gen. Flores—to seize the opportunity to grant a general political amnesty. Candidly speaking, we did not give the Oriental Governor credit for so happy an idea; it comes peculiarly grateful on so auspicious an occasion, and speaks not only for the originality of the man, but also testifies to his wish to silence the political disputes which have so long harassed his country.

The news we received yesterday from the Interior is of a most unpleasant nature: another sweeping Indian invasion has taken place in the district of the Rio Cuarto, the invaders being variously stated at from 2,000 to 3,000. Meanwhile, it grates on one's ears to hear that Gen. Paunero and his officers have been entertained at a grand ball in Rosario, and were actually dancing away, enjoying themselves to their hearts' content, whilst on the frontier havoc and desolation was going on. We cannot, of course, blame the people of Rosario for extending their hospitalities to the veteran general and his staff; neither can we censure Gen. Paunero for accepting the invitation, for if he refused it would have been a slight to the Rosarinos: still it is a most unhappy coincidence, and the best way to avoid a repetition of it, is for the General and his staff to proceed at once on their journey.

By the Panama mails received yesterday we learn that the President of the United States has appointed Mr. Albert G. Lawrence, minister to Costa Rica; and that Rear-Admiral Dahlgren has been ordered to the command of the United States squadron in the South Pacific, to relieve Rear-Admiral Pearson.

We notice in the papers from the Interior, received yesterday, that much noise is made about some great gold mines discovered by the Indians in Bolivia—all the people in the upper regions are clearing out for the mines, which are located near the Andes: probably by next mail we shall receive further details.

From Parana we received news yesterday of the army: the Paraguayans are very troublesome at night, have swept off some horses, and are now building another Curupaiti fortress on the right, just where Flores made a dash with his cavalry. The floods have caused immense damage, and some of the suttlers are ruined; there is so much water in the Laguna Piris that Marshal Caxias (nee Casey) has ordered some gunboats and ironclads into the lake, to bombard the enemy's position right on the edge of the lake, so we may expect to hear of another fight by next mail.

There is some complaint made about the old system of punishment, by staking. A petition is about to be sent to the Commander-in-Chief to abolish this. Although it is difficult to say what other punishment will be resorted to, as desertion is much complained of. Many of the Brazilian Regiments suffer greatly from this, and as they go over to the enemy it is thought they are spies; but Lopez irons all who passes over, and puts them to work in the country. The Santa Fé and Entre Riano soldiers were nearly drowned by the flood. They escaped with the water up to their hips. Colonel Maldones is the successor to Nelson, whose departure from the army is much regretted.

House building is the order of the day amongst the Allied soldiers, and many of them sow and plant vegetables. Commander Pippo has a very splendid cabbage garden, and it is a great privilege to be invited to dine with him. He has got excellent Irish potatoes and English cauliflowers every day.

Colonel Mirazo, once an officer of distinction, is now a sutler at the army, and sells brandy, &c., to the soldiers.

Commander Garcia, of the 3d Entre Riano Battalion, complains greatly about the desertion going on amongst his men. On the 16th and 17th ult. he lost no less than 22 men, and 4 of them actually decamped with their arms.

Advices received yesterday from Montevideo, announce that Mr. Smith, of the Telegraph Company, was chaired round the room, and Captain Lobb and Mr. Felstead decreed medals. The most unexampled hilarity prevailed in Montevideo at the dinner.

We cannot omit to mention that much of the success of the Telegraph line is due to the untiring exertions of Messrs. Heritage and Lomax, who have endured the greatest hardships. They left town yesterday for the Punta Lara.

Hermann is, beyond all question, the most extraordinary of human beings. He comes up to Sir Boyle Roach's definition of a bird, for he can be in two places at the same time. He was at the Coliseum dinner: every one saw him, and yet hardly had we sat down to dinner when the news arrived that he was at the Montevidean dinner also at precisely the same time. How he managed this, we are really at a loss to discover. He gives his next performance on Sunday, which will be his 'penultimate' appearance. Of course the Coton will be crammed full.

We received mails from Chile yesterday, but have hardly room for the news. Wheat has gone up there considerably. The Peruvian Minister Pacheco had left Valparaiso for Lima. All the Chilian papers copy out the Curupaiti fight, and the remarks are very bitter. The Chilian fleet, we think, will not come round to the East-coast. The news of the English squadron having been ordered to the Spanish Coast is published and caused great joy. The great event in Chile is the opening of the Santiago Railway to Carico. Marshal Castilla had arrived at Valparaiso as a political refugee.

Peru is very quiet, and the squadron will not leave for a cruise to the River Plate, but remain guarding the Peruvian coast where it is much required. Minister Errazuriz has been most summarily dismissed.

A horrible tragedy has been perpretrated in Bolivia: Col. Saturnino Guachalla, an old officer and Government employee has been killed by clubs and stones by a lot of Indians who attacked him in the very town where he was magistrate, the matter has caused intense excitement all through Bolivia.

We notice in the New York Herald of the 23rd Sept. that the difficulty between the U. States Government and the Allies, about Mr. Washburn, is treated, and our colleague then states that all is arranged amicably, as the Allies have given full permission to pass.

It was rumored yesterday in town that the well-known British barque Istria was lost on her homeward voyage, the passengers were, however: all saved. We have been promised full details.

Yesterday we heard of a good wool sale, belonging to Mr. Coghlan from Chililcoy, 883 all round, with bellies, the wool was in splendid condition.

Latest advices, by French mail, from Antwerp give the stock of River Plate wool there 21,300 bales—about 2,800 bales sold at current rates; in Havre some large sales effected, but prices rather weak.

The Ministsr of Provincial Government calls for bids to pave the Flores and Boca roads: are there no Englishmen here to take the contract?

Mr. Furze was the gentleman who received and despatched all the telegraphic messages during the banquet at the Coliseum: few can imagine all the work this indefatigable gentleman had to accomplish, and he deserves a gold medal for his unceasing labor.

OUR NEW RIO CORRESPONDENT.

Rio de Janeiro, Nov. 17, 1866.

To the Editors of the Standard,

Gentlemen,

On taking up my pen to commence a series of letters to the Standard as your Rio Correspondent, I wish, before giving my resumé of what has occurred since the departure of the Arno on the 7th inst., to offer a few general considerations for the appreciation of your readers.

A resident in Brazil now for over eleven years, I have during that time very closely studied the wealth, resources, and commerce of this vast empire, and have also observed the policy of the sundry parties which from time to time have held the reins of its Government; nor have I neglected to look into the character and social disposition of its people.

Strongly impressed with the idea that a country blessed, as this is, by nature, with all the elements of grandeur, must one day rise to eminence, I admire its boundless wealth and hope for its future prosperity;—grateful to the people for their never-failing hospitality, protection, and kindness. I hope to see the Brazilians, as a nation, occupy ere long that position in the world which seems to have been destined for them by Providence.

As a sincere friend, therefore, of Brazil I shall endeavor throughout my communications to analyse all matters with the strictest impartiality whenever I feel myself called upon to express an opinion, and beg to assure your subscribers that I shall strive to give them always the most important and authentic information, and strictly avoid at the same time all those canards and unfounded reports which in time of war especially are so current in all countries.

Animated by these intentions I trust that, while I decline any pretensions to a rivalry of the celebrated Junius, or even of your clever correspondent Siubad, I may succeed in gaining occasionally from yourselves and from your readers a word or two of commendation for—

CABRAL.

GREAT SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

On Thursday we had occasion to visit the Railway Terminus, Plaza Constitucion, and have much pleasure in testifying to the cleanliness and good order which everywhere prevailed. It was a remarkably busy day among the brokers, and we recognised Srs. Torres, Patonis, Berroteran, Arrias, Martinez, Bradley, Burmeister, and several others.

On the platform all was bustle and excitement. The Chascomus train was preparing to start, and all were rushing to secure a seat, no easy matter either. Although an unusually long train, every carriage was filled with passengers and luggage.

Our distinguished friend, Sr. Ezcurra, politely offered to show us through the establishment, calling our attention to the various improvements of the talented manager. We were particularly struck by the new method of conveying the wool-cart, minus the wheels, on board a truck. The advantages of this method are manifold, and it deserves a patent. Considerable time, expense, and trouble are saved in the packing and unpacking at the stations, and the whole lot arrives in our market just the same as when the farmer made it up: one of these usually weighs from 230 to 250 arrs., but the company never charge for the cart. In a short time we may expect to see all the produce of our southern camps thus conveyed: then the farmers will be able to send their wools in at all seasons.

Already Srs. Lezama, Fernandez, and others have adopted the new way, and their success will doubtless induce many more to follow their example.

The new sheds are just the thing: they are roomy and well-constructed, and must remain a standing memorial of the untiring efforts of Mr. Banfield to accommodate the public, and so successful has he been, that the shareholders may well cry out, 'he is the right man in the right place.'

We were next conducted into the Sala Commercial, a large room tastefully hung with maps. At the other end hung a slate, with the prices, sales, &c.

Returning by the tramway, we were painfully reminded of the frightful state of the Calle Lima. Sr. Ezcurra, who accompanied us, assured us that the company had spent, and were actually expending, vast sums on repairs; that Mr. Banfield and Sr. Herrera had met to consider what was best to be done, but that nothing permanent can be effected without paving the whole street.

QUARANTINE ABSURDITIES AT MONTEVIDEO.

The detention of the Galileo at Montevideo, and the continued absurd regulations (the Uruguay 35 days out direct from Liverpool was placed in 'observation' for 48 hours), are beginning to bear their natural fruit, and if the impediments of commerce are persisted in, it is possible the Liverpool steamers may cause to call at that port.

We thought France, Spain and Portugal stood alone in the obstructiveness of their so called 'Sanitary' regulations, and were not prepared to find the free Republic of Montevideo inflicting a suicidal blow to her own commerce.

Let the heads of the Government take immediate steps to remedy this and prevent their underlings under paltry health pretences from inflicting heavy loss on the whole commercial body.

Liverpool, Brazil and R. Plate Steamers.

Shippers to Montevideo are respectfully informed that the Screw Steamer Galileo had been ordered to perform twelve days quarantine there in consequence of bringing a foul bill of health from Liverpool, though she had already been subjected to twenty-four hours quarantine in Brazil, and had carried a clean bill of health from Rio de Janeiro. Her Majesty's Representative had taken the matter up, and when the mail left hopes were entertained of the Steamer's immediate release.

In the interest alike of the Shipowner and the Shipper, we propose to insert a clause in bills of lading for Montevideo by the Kepler and succeeding Steamers, authorising the Master to proceed to Buenos Ayres without delay, should a protracted quarantine be threatened at Montevideo, and to forward the goods from Buenos Ayres to Montevideo at Ship's expense but Shipper's risk, or to deliver them on the return voyage as may seem best.

Shippers by the Ptolemy may perhaps think it well to obtain the consent of their Underwriters to a similar course, though no such clause appears in the bills of lading by the lattter Steamer.

THE AMPHITRITE FUND.

Consulat de S. M. L'Empereur d'Austriche á Buenos Ayres,
Nov. 28, 1866.

My dear Colleague,

In due time I received your kind communication, dated 12th inst., enclosing $6028—say six thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight dollars currency—to be handed over by me to Mr. Santo Lovrovich, second captain, and crew of the Austrian barque Amphitrite, being amount of a subscription raised by British Shipmasters and friends as a token of their feeling of admiration for their gallant conduct in saving the crews of the French barques Marie Elise and Napoleon III.

The heart-felt expressions of sincere good will on the part of the British Shipmasters and Gentlemen donors at the heading of the Subscription List will be, I can assure you, my dear Colleague, the most gratifying recompense that Lovrorich and his crew could ever expect, and I shall make it my duty, in due time, to communicate it to him.

I remain, yours truly,

Austrian Consul.

UNITED STATES WOOL CROP.

The Wool crop has been constantly increasing in magnitude during the last five years. The attention of many agriculturists has been turned toward the raising of sheep, which has been rendered extraordinarily profitable both by the large demand for wool and its consequent high price, and the increasing use of mutton for the table. In 1860, the whole number of sheep in the United States, according to the census, was 22,471,276, and in the twenty-three States and territories, from which alone during the war returns could be obtained, 15,104,272. In 1864, the number of sheep in these States had risen to 24,346,391, and in 1865, to 28,647,269.

In 1860, the wool-clip of the whole United States was 60,264,913 pounds, and of the twenty-three States already named, 47,900,862 pounds. In 1864, owing not only to the great increase in the number of sheep, but to the improvement in the breeds, it was 97,385,564 pounds, or more than double the yield of 1860; in 1865, it had further increased to 114,589,076 pounds, and is still rapidly on the increase, as it should be, for the demand for wool still causes a considerable importation from Great Britain and Canada as well as from Germany, and South of Europe, South Africa, and South America. California will probably soon supply the grade of wool hitherto imported from South America. The importation of 1864 was in round numbers 75,000,000 pounds. Owing to the increased tariff on foreign wools the importation of 1865 would probably not much exceed 30,000,000 pounds, but there is very little of this which might not be grown to advantage on our own territory.

ON 'CHANGE.

Nov. 30, 1866.

Paper price of ounces,	364
Do. sovereigns,	111½
First price of patacons,	22 80
Second	22 65
Last,	22 75

Cash sales, 746,150.

This being the last day of the month, the sales were, of course, considerably over the average, but the extraordinary amount of 'vencimientos' to-day, nearly seven millions of patacons, showed too clearly the enormous speculation going on and over-trading in gold; few of even the very closest observers on the Bolsa imagined that such a stupendous an amount of specie had been bought and sold for the end of the month, and as the market ruled weak all day, and closed with a downward tendency, it was unmistakeably obvious that millions had been bought that could not be paid for. The result of this is not yet fully shown, but to-morrow will tell, as large transactions have been left pending until Saturday. The gold market is at present more influenced by the demand for paper money than any Bolsa speculation, at least 200,000 ar. of wool bought during the week has to be paid for to-morrow (Saturday.) This represents, at the lowest calculation, fourteen millions, and all this money has to be raised in the street, as there is not a Bank in Buenos Ayres discounting in paper. Even the very wool market itself shows this, for to-day the price of wool fell sensibly, because the buyers held back and farmers forced their wools on the market. It is the opinion of a barraquero of great experience, that unless the farmers consent to send their wools into deposit, prices must fall heavily, for wool keeps coming in too fast now. The Frenchmen have filled nearly all their orders. The English buy nothing: the Americans only the choicest lots. Thus the market is in the hands of the most experienced buyers in the River Plate—the Germans.

There are 200 carts in the North Plaza, and about 50 waggons have come in and are not yet unloaded. At the station every hour there are fresh arrivals, and in the South Plaza, although there is less wool, the stock there is also accumulating. Besides this large stock in the Plaza, there are also large lots held in second-hand for sale. The demand for wool is active, but by no means equal to the supply, and many barraqueros are so full, that they find it difficult to accmodate any more.

The attitude of the Government, the false position of the Bank, and the mooted loans, projects, schemes, and bills, are discussed on 'Change, but the wool market at present rules everything, and if the Government, Bank, and Legislature were to combine and name a fixed value, a legal tender price on gold, the demand nd supply of paper money would defeat them all. The most powerful speculators in the market have been buying for the end of November; had the price closed at 28 they were saved, but nothing could bolster up the market, for the squeeze for paper money has set in and the losses or differences on the vencimientos can only be counted in millions. The news from the Interior is very unsatisfactory—another sweeping Indian invasion, whilst from headquarters nothing whatever beyond some flying rumours from Paraná.

The Telegraph worked well to-day and the first business transacted was effected to-day. A cargo of Cardiff coal which had just entered Montevideo was sold to-day by John F. Gowland and Co. of this city to Matti and Co. at 12¼ pats., 5 month; cargo consigned to Delfino. The ship now comes up to Buenos Ayres. Mr. Gowland has the honor and credit of being the first in this city to effect a sale by telegraph.

The time sales of specie as follows:—

For Friday,	128,000	22.95
Saturday,	173,000	22.80
Dec. 31,	71,000	23.10
Dec. 15,	3,000	23
In National Bonds,	10,000	42¾.
" "	1,000	42½.

In the wool markets we have the following:—

SOUTH PLAZA.

8 carts good wool,	$72
1 " "	80
3 waggons "	75
1500 @ "	72
4 carts prime wool	78
2 " good "	69

Great complaint made about bellies.

NORTH PLAZA.

About 200 carts in the Plaza. 20,000 ar. discharged in the station, and 60 waggons still unloaded. Stock unsold, about 70,000 ar. Sold this morning about 20,000 ar.

There was a great pressure for selling, and prices consequently declined. Very fine lots, suitable for the American market, came forward, and fine lots, with bellies, were scarcely looked at. Good wools, in fair condition, fetch at present from 67 to 72, but a further decline of the prices is expected next week, if the owners do not prefer to put their wools in deposit for a couple of months.

Billinghurst's ram auction; animals seventeen months old:—

Benevento—One ram, $2,100; do. $2,000; do. $2,000; do. $2,600; do. $2,000.

Latham—One ram, $2,600; do. $2,000; do. 2,600, do. $2,000.

The principal estanciero being occupied with the shearing, &c., these splendid rams were sold remarkably cheap.

As regards the Montevidean wool market we received the following telegram after Bolsa hours.

Montevideo, 30th Nov., 3.45 p.m.

Telegram received with thanks. No sales of wool this day. Several parcels sold at 38 rls. yesterday. Sellers of choice lots unwilling to sell below 39 to 40 rls.

PRODUCE REPORT.

London, E.C., Oct. 22, 1866.

Only a small business done in Salted Hides during the last fortnight, and there is no alteration in price to notice. Stocks are reduced to 19,369 Salted River Plate, and 17,938 Rio Grande hides. The trade continues quiet, and demand for all descriptions of hides limited.

Floating cargoes have been in request for the Continent, but few offering, and no sales have been made.

Horse Hides, without improvement in demand, and no sales of any importance have been made. Stock confined to 6000 Salted Hides.

Horse Hair.—No sales. Stock confined to 15 bales received from Continent, and held for a high price. The first arrivals will sell well.

Sheep Skins.—In the absence of further arrivals there are no sales to advise. Prices may be considered firm.

Nutria Skins.—No disposition to give the prices required for the stock here, and there are no sales to advise. No further arrivals. Stock this day, 39 bales.

The Tallow Market continues quiet, with a limited demand for all descriptions. The present value of Russian T. C., on the spot, is 44s. 6d. per cwt. River Plate Tallow, being firmly held for last rates, the sales during the past fortnight have been confined to 112 casks, and the quotation to-day for fair average quality is 46s. per cwt.

The Wool Market, like most other branches of trade is at present without much animation, yet there has been in some descriptions a fair amount of business.

Fine Wools are freely enquired for, and as the stock at this season naturally decreases, firm prices are obtained. Medium and coarse kinds remain quiet.

Liverpool.—600 bales unwashed Mestizo and Merino Buenos Ayres have been sold, chiefly at 7d. to 8d. per lb., also 150 bales washed Cordova at 10½d. for ordinary to 11½d. for first class. In scoured Montevideo a few lots have been sold at 16d. to 11½d. Mestizo and 9½d. for clean Creolla.

Antwerp.—Good demand, particularly for fine qualities. On 7th to 15th November 22,000 bales will be offered at auction.

Havre.—Steady demand at former prices. On 18th and 19th inst. 6,000 bales were offered at auction, and 2,300 bales sold; competition opened rather weak, particularly for Buenos Ayres; the sales closed with a better tone.

United States.—Up to 9th October the Wool Market is reported tame, and in manufactures there is a want of tone. Good average Buenos Ayres unwashed Merino and No. 1, one-half of each, offered at 22 cents. gold, duty paid, but buyers hang back.

HYSTERIA,
It is a sure and speedy relief. With the very elite of fashion it has for 25 years maintained its ascendancy over all other perfumes throughout the West Indies, Cuba, Mexico, and Central and South America, and we confidently recommend it as an article which, for soft delicacy of flavor, richness of bouquet, and permanency, has no equal. It will also remove from the skin
ROUGHNESS, BLOTCHES,
SUN-BURN, PIMPLES,
AND FRECKLES.

It is as delicious as the Otto of Roses, and lends freshness and beautiful transparency to the complexion. Diluted with water it makes the best dentifrice, imparting a pearly whiteness to the teeth; it also removes all smarting or pain after shaving.

COTTON GINS.
BURGESS & KEY

The Report states that "the two Gins exhibited by Burgess & Key were found capable of ginning a greater quantity of Cotton than all the other Gins of different systems."

The many improvements made in these Gins by Burgess & Key, have been the result of experiments made on every variety of Cotton, and also from experiences in Egypt, India, Italy, Greece, Smyrna, Australia, &c., &c., where many of the largest Ginning Establishments have adopted these Gins, and in one case twenty-one of them are used in one establishment, each of which will turn out 300 lbs. of clean cotton per hour."

The capacity of the Gins varies from 25 to 800 lbs. of clean Cotton, per hour, according to the size.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Cangallo--103.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from nine a.m. till Three p.m. on Week Days and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.
P. P. MAUÁ & Co.,
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another, on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
